

About This Area

From Lincoln, take Highway 65 south approximately one mile, then Route H east 10.7 miles, then Heits Point Avenue (Lake Road H-25) south .3 miles.

This area contains a small expanse of dolomite glade, common on the thin soils surrounding the lake. A variety of wildflowers including rose gentian, blazing stars, and prairie dock can be found on the area, as well as other species associated with glade communities, including fence lizards and five-lined skink. Currently some native grasslands are being restored which will provide small game hunting opportunities.
